STIPULATED FINAL JUDGMENT
AND ORDER FOR INJUNCTIVE AND OTHER EQUITABLE RELIEF

22 Defendants.

23
24 Plaintiff, the Federal Trade Commission ("Commission" or "FTC"), filed a
25 Complaint for Injunctive and Other Equitable Relief against Defendants Airborne Health,
26 Inc., also d/b/a Airborne, Inc., also d/b/a Knight-McDowell Labs; Airborne Holdings, Inc.;

1 Victoria Knight-McDowell; and Thomas John McDowell, pursuant to Section 13(b) of the
2 Federal Trade Commission Act (“FTC Act”), 15 U.S.C. § 53(b), alleging deceptive acts or
3 practices and false advertisements in violation of Sections 5(a) and 12 of the FTC Act, 15
4 U.S.C. §§ 45(a) and 52.

5 The Commission and Defendants Airborne Health, Inc., also d/b/a Airborne, Inc.,
6 also d/b/a Knight-McDowell Labs; Airborne Holdings, Inc.; Victoria Knight-McDowell; and
7 Thomas John McDowell (collectively, “Defendants”), without Defendants admitting or 8 denying liability for any of the conduct alleged in the Complaint, have stipulated to entry of 9 the following agreement for permanent injunction and settlement of claims for monetary
10 relief in settlement of the Commission’s allegations against Defendants.

11 The Court, having been presented with this Stipulated Final Judgment and Order for 12 Injunctive and Other Equitable Relief (“Order”), finds as follows:

13 FINDINGS

14 1. This Court has jurisdiction over the subject matter of this case and jurisdiction
15 over all parties. Venue in the Central District of California is proper.

16 2. The acts and practices of Defendants are in or affecting commerce, as defined
17 in Section 4 of the FTC Act, 15 U.S.C. § 44.

18 3. The Complaint states a claim upon which relief can be granted under Sections
19 5(a) and 12 of the FTC Act, 15 U.S.C. §§ 45(a) and 52, and the Commission has the 20 authority to seek the relief it has requested.

21 4. Defendants waive all rights to seek judicial review or otherwise challenge or 22 contest the validity of this Order. Defendants also waive any claim that they may have held
23 under the Equal Access to Justice Act, 28 U.S.C. § 2412, concerning the prosecution of this
24 action to the date of this Order.

25 5. This Order reflects the negotiated agreement of the Commission and 26 Defendants, and Defendants have entered into this Order freely and without coercion.

1 6. The Commission and Defendants stipulate and agree to entry of this Order
2 under Section 13(b) of the FTC Act, 15 U.S.C. § 53(b), without trial or final adjudication of
3 any issue of fact or law to settle and resolve all matters of dispute arising from the conduct
4 alleged in the Complaint to the date of this Order. This stipulation is for settlement purposes
5 only and nothing contained in this Order shall constitute, nor shall be construed as, an
6 admission of fact, except for jurisdictional facts, or a finding that any law has been violated
7 or of any other wrongdoing by Defendants.

8 7. This action and the relief awarded herein are in addition to, and not in lieu of,
9 other remedies as may be provided by law.

10 8. Pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 65(d), the provisions of this
11 Order are binding upon Defendants and their officers, agents, servants, employees, and all 12 other persons or entities in active concert or participation with them who receive actual 13 notice of this Order by personal service or otherwise.

14 9. Nothing in this Order obviates the obligation of Defendants to comply with 15 Sections 5 and 12 of the FTC Act, 15 U.S.C. §§ 45 and 52.

16 10. The Commission's action against Defendants is an exercise of the 17 Commission's police or regulatory power as a governmental unit.

18 11. The paragraphs of this Order shall be read as the necessary requirements for 19 compliance and not as alternatives for compliance, and no paragraph serves to modify
20 another paragraph unless expressly so stated.

21 12. Each party shall bear its own costs and attorneys' fees.

22 13. Entry of this Order is in the public interest.

23 14. The Plaintiff and Defendants, by and through their counsel, have agreed that 24 entry of this Order resolves all matters in dispute between them arising from the facts and 25 circumstances alleged in the Complaint in this action, up to the date of entry of this Order.

11 Provided, however, that this judgment shall be suspended and shall be deemed to be

a. Defendants shall deposit into a segregated interest-bearing escrow account an amount necessary to satisfy valid settlement members’ claims, up to a maximum deposit of six million five hundred thousand dollars ($6,500,000) (the “FTC Redress Payment”). Such deposit shall be made on or before October 13, 2008.

b. In the event that defendants choose to deposit the FTC Redress Payment prior to October 13, 2008, the balance of the escrow account, up to a maximum of the amount of the FTC Redress Payment that is not necessary to satisfy valid settlement members’ claims, shall be returned to Defendants within thirty (30) days after completion of the Wilson Class Action Payments.

c. Any portion of the FTC Redress Payment that is not ultimately disbursed due to the failure of class members to cash claims checks shall be disgorged to the Commission, within thirty (30) days of the expiration date of the checks.

2. If the Wilson Class Action Payments total $23.51 million or less, Defendants shall have no obligation to make any additional payments.

5 Settlement or payment by Defendants of at least $23.5 million is not made by December 31,
6 2009 in connection with a class action proceeding challenging conduct similar to that

- 10 1. Defendants shall transfer the balance of any funds deposited pursuant

The FTC redress fund shall be used by the Commission or its agents for equitable relief, including but not limited to consumer redress, and any attendant expenses for the administration of such equitable relief. A consumer shall have the right to participate in the redress distribution only upon signing a waiver of rights to make any subsequent claim against defendants for the amount of the refund received. Defendants shall have no right to contest the manner of distribution chosen by the Commission.
3. Within ten (10) days of the deposit of the FTC redress funds, Airborne Health shall provide to the Commission all information in its possession relating to valid consumer claims submitted in the Wilson Class Action.
4. Within 30 (thirty) days of completion of the Commission-administered redress program and payment of administration costs, the Commission shall authorize closure of the FTC redress fund and the return of any remaining balance, up to a maximum of $6,500,000, to the Defendants. The Commission shall deposit any remaining funds to the United States Treasury as disgorgement. Defendants shall have no right to challenge the Commission's choice of remedies under this Part.

2. In the event of default on any obligation to make payment under this Order, interest, computed pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1961(a), shall accrue from the date of default to the date of payment. In the event such default continues for ten (10) calendar days beyond the date payment is due, the entire amount shall immediately become due and payable. Defendants shall be jointly and severally liable for all payments required by this Order and any interest on such payments.
3. All funds paid to the Commission pursuant to this Subsection shall be deposited into an account administered by the Commission or its agents to be used for equitable relief, including but not limited to consumer redress, and any attendant expenses for the administration of such equitable relief. In the event that direct redress to consumers is wholly or partially impracticable or funds remain after the redress is completed, the Commission may apply any remaining funds for such other equitable relief (including consumer information remedies) as it determines to be reasonably related to Defendants' practices alleged in the Complaint. Any funds not used for such equitable relief shall be deposited to the United States Treasury as disgorgement. Defendants shall have no right to challenge the Commission's choice of remedies under this Subsection. Defendants shall have no right to contest the manner of distribution chosen by the Commission. Defendants agree that the facts as alleged in the Complaint filed in this action shall be taken as true without further proof in any bankruptcy case or subsequent civil litigation pursued by the Commission to enforce its rights to any payment or money judgment pursuant to this Order, including but not limited to a non-dischargeability complaint in any bankruptcy case.
6. In accordance with 31 U.S.C § 7701, Defendants are hereby required, unless they have done so already, to furnish to the Commission their taxpayer identifying numbers and/or social security numbers, which shall be used for the purposes of collecting and reporting on any delinquent amount arising out of Defendants' relationship with the government.

5 COMPLIANCE MONITORING BY THE COMMISSION

6 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that, for the purpose of monitoring and investigating
7 compliance with any provision of this Order:

13 Defendants, after attempting to resolve a dispute without court action and for good cause
14 shown, may file a motion with this Court seeking an order including one or more of the 15 protections set forth in Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(c).

16 B. In addition, the Commission is authorized to monitor compliance with this 17 Order by all other lawful means, including but not limited to the following:

- 18 1. Obtaining discovery from any person, without further leave of court,
19 using the procedures prescribed by Fed. R. Civ. P. 30, 31, 33, 34, 36, 20 and 45; and
- 21 2. Posing as consumers, marketers, manufacturers, suppliers,
22 wholesalers, retailers, distributors, or other product-related entities to 23 any Defendant, its employees, or any other entity managed or
24 controlled in whole or in part by any Defendant, without the necessity
25 of identification or prior notice.

26

1 C. Defendants each shall permit representatives of the Commission to interview
2 any officer, director, employee, employer, consultant, independent contractor, representative,
3 or agent who has agreed to such an interview, relating in any way to any conduct subject to

7 1, to obtain any documentary material, tangible things, testimony, or information relevant to 8 unfair or deceptive acts or practices in or affecting commerce (within the meaning of 15

4 [Addressee]

5 Dear Airborne Health, Inc. Distributor, Reseller, or Retailer:

6 In a recent lawsuit, the Federal Trade Commission (FTC) charged our company with
7 making deceptive claims for Airborne Effervescent Health Formula and other Airborne
8 branded products. According to the FTC, we lacked scientific evidence that our products
9 prevent colds, protect against germs, reduce the severity or duration of colds, or protect
10 against colds, sickness, or infection in crowded places. Although we dispute the FTC's
11 charges, we have agreed to settle the lawsuit.

12 To comply with the court's order in this case, we instruct you to immediately refrain
13 and/or stop using advertising or promotional materials that claim that Airborne Effervescent
14 Health Formula (all flavors), Airborne Jr., Airborne On-the-Go, Airborne Power Pixies, or 15 Airborne Nighttime:

- 16 ● reduces the risk of or prevents colds, sickness, or infection;
- 17 ● protects against or helps fight germs;
- 18 ● reduces the severity or duration of colds; or
- 19 ● protects against colds, sickness, or infection in crowded places like airplanes,
20 offices, or schools.

21 You may continue to sell your existing inventory of current Airborne products.

22 If you have any questions, please call [insert name and telephone numbers of the 23 responsible Airborne Health, Inc. Attorney or Officer].

24 Sincerely,
25 Elise Donahue, Chief Executive Officer
